DISCUSSION

A. Standard of Review

A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. See id. § 1915A(b)(1),(2). Pro se pleadings must, however, be liberally construed. See Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

B. Plaintiff's Claims

Having reviewed the complaint, the Court finds that Plaintiff's allegations, liberally construed, state the following cognizable claims: (1) a violation of Plaintiff's right to due process under the Fourteenth Amendment (claim I); (2) a violation of Plaintiff's right to redress his grievances based upon retaliation under the First Amendment (claim II); and (3) a violation of Plaintiff's constitutional right to access the courts (claims III, IV).

C. Scheduling Order

Now that plaintiff is represented by counsel, the parties are ordered to appear at a case management conference on June 27, 2008 at 10:30 a.m. The parties shall submit a case management conference statement no later than ten days prior to the conference, pursuant to the Court's local rules.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
